The Democrat.

GENERAL SCHENCK, late Minister to England was before the House Committee on Foreign Affairs on Tuesday. His statement was so far a weak affair. He gives his version how he innocently got mixed up in it and read a paper to that end. He stated how and why he became a director—but only attended two meetings and then resigned—claims he lost $50,000 or $60,000.

THE HEADSTONE FRAUDS.

Maurice J. Walsh, of New York, when before the Committee on Military Affairs at Washington, in reference to soldiers' tombstone contracts, claimed that although his bid for first-class Carrara marble was only some $900,000, out of which $200,000 was to come back to the Government in the shape of duty on imported articles, the contract was given to a Mr.
Bridges, of Keokuk, Iowa, for $900,000 for American marble of very inferior quality, and without any such advantage to the Government. He also charged that Mr.
Bridges' bid was put in after the hour fixed for opening the bids, and after two of his own (Walsh's) had been opened. He also asserts that Bridges was also favored to the extent of $77,000 in a change of requirements in specifications after the bids were in. The question is, how much of a swag Belknap & Co. got.

It turns out that there is as strong evidence against Belknap as that given by Marsh, and the hue and cry raised about the latter going to Canada, was only for effect. The Grierson report is enough to impeach and convict him. This report passed through the hands of Adjutant-General Townsend, and was by him referred to Gen. Belknap. Mr. Townsend testified of his own knowledge that Gen.
Belknap read the Grierson report. This brought the knowledge of the outrages committed upon the soldiers officially to the knowledge of Gen. Belknap before the end of March, 1872. Knowing these facts, Gen. Belknap to December, 1875 received quarterly payments from Mr.
Marsh, for which he receipted by the indorsement of "O K" upon express receipts, and he was also in continuous correspondence with Mr. Marsh relative to the Fort Sill post, to remittances which were to be sent him, and to investments to be made for him. It is enough to impeach Belknap, and the whole Grant Administration as well as the Radical leaders in Congress since 1872. The documentary evidence of these frauds have been within the reach of the President and Congress for four years, but they refused to investigate.

ESQ URE GRIMES.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT.—The Primary election is over and the result so far as Justice of the Peace is concerned, is known. Our excellent citizen and present Justice, Edward M. Grimes, received the nomination. Mr. Grimes has discharged the duties of civil magistrate with fidelity and impartiality, and has maintained an unspotted record. It has been his purpose in all cases coming before him to deal justly fairly and honorably without reference to official position or personal consideration. Strictly honest and conscientious in his convictions at what is right, he has labored only to keep the peace and quiet of society so far as his influences was felt. If he has incurred the ill-will or displeasure of any person or persons it is because duty was paramount to the law in his judgment, imperative. The voters of the city and township can not do better; so I say, give Mr. Grimes another term.
They may be assured that whatever confidence is reposed in him will not in any instance be violated.

Let all, without regard to party do their duty next Monday by giving him a second term, and they will never regret their choice.

AN INDEPENDENT VOTER.

FROM OLD VIRGINIA.

KEYSVILLE, Charlotte County, Va., March 20, 1876.
Mr. Editor—As many kind friends and neighbors request me to write to them I thought by writing to the DEMOCRAT that we could accommodate them and possibly others. We left Canton on Monday, March 13th, at 8 o'clock, a. m., and arrived in Pittsburgh at 12 m.; changed cars and were soon on our way to Harrisburg; got into Harrisburg at 11.55 p. m.; laid over until 4 o'clock in the morning and then left for Baltimore. We reached Baltimore at 7 o'clock in the morning and changed cars immediately for Washington City, where we arrived at 9.30 in the morning but could get no train until 11.30 p. m. We had some time to view the city, which certainly was a sight to see. The White House, Capitol and other Government buildings, were of great interest to us, as was the extensive depot, which accommodates passengers day and night.

We left the city with all its grandeur at 11.30 p. m. for Richmond, Va., arrived in the latter city at 5.30 o'clock in the morning; remained there that day and bought our stove and furniture at prices we thought very cheap. We visited the penitentiary and found everything neat and in good order. Messrs. Rummel and Hardman, both gentlemen from New Philadelphia, rigged up their team and going to the freight house we loaded our goods and then went to our new home two and a half miles from Keysville. So far, we are well pleased with our place.
My farm, you may remember, is one hundred acres, forty acres improved with buildings and orchard, for which I paid $800. The land is what is called second bottom. My unimproved land is good forest timber.

Yours truly,
DANIEL GIOVE.

GENERAL BANNING'S army bill passed the House on Wednesday by a vote of 141 to 61. It reduces the expenses a half a million.

MR. KASSON moved to amend the title of the bill so that it would read: "A bill to punish the army of the United States for gallant service rendered by it in preserving the Union."

MR. BANNING—I move to refer that motion to the gentleman from Iowa [Kasson] for the gallant service rendered by him during the war.

MR. KASSON—I will be glad to take it with me, and I am ready to report on it immediately.

MR. BANNING—You are more ready to report now than you were to report for carrying a knapsack during the war.
You could not be found then. [Laughter.] The motion to amend the title was rejected, yeas 62, nays 151.

"Cut gentle spring, ethereal bladders cut." Re-choosing! Oh cut.

ZOLLARS & CO.

[apr24-73]

The floods last week raised the streams in Massachusetts and at Clinton, Massy pond dam broke away Sunday and swept down stream doing immense damage, estimated at $200,000. At Clinton, Fuller-ville and other points factories and buildings were swept away. At Fayetteville too a dam embankment broke away and five men were drowned.

And now it appears that a man who wanted a post tradership made a present to the President of a pair of Indian ponies. They were little ones, and very likely nothing will be done about it. In like manner the watch given to Mrs.
GRANT by Gen. INGALLS signified nothing, because it was a very small watch.

These things remind us of the scene between the mother of Midskipman Easy and a young woman who applied for the situation of wet nurse, as described by Capt. MARRYAT:

"Pray, young woman," said Mrs. Easy,
"what is your name?"
"Sarah, if you please, ma'am."
"How long have you been married?"
"Married, ma'am?"
"Yes, married."
"If you please, ma'am, I had a misfortune, ma'am," replied the girl, casting down her eyes.
"What have you not been married?"
"No, ma'am, not yet."
"Good heavens! Dr. Middleton, what can you mean by bringing this person here?" exclaimed Mrs. Easy.
"If you please, ma'am," interrupted the young woman, dropping a curtsy, "it was a very little one."
"A very little one!" exclaimed Mrs.
Easy.

"Yes, ma'am, very small, indeed." Perhaps Mr. Belknap will plead in his defense that in selling post traderships it was a very small business that he was engaged in; though it seems to have paid him a very handsome sum in the aggregate.—Er.

Mount Union, Stark Co., March 27, 1876.
GENTS—Please send enclosed fifty cents, for which send me that staunch and reliable Democratic newspaper, the Stark county DEMOCRAT for three months. Having read it ever since I could read it has become indispensable.

Yours truly,
E. P. WARNER.

I am sorry to tell you I wish to take the Stark County DEMOCRAT. I am a Republican but I send you two dollars, and if you please, send me the paper for one year. I think I can get some other fellows out here to subscribe so they can get acquainted with Sammy Schuler. He is a funny boy. Direct to
WM. H. STOSE,
Stony Ridge, Wood county, Ohio.

Fort Wayne, Ind., March 12, 1876.
GENTS—Please send enclosed one dollar for subscription for paper for six months.
